CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

In 1976 the decision was taken to implement a national soccer competition which would dramatically improve standards in the game. By virtue of circumstances at the time it was necessary to ensure that some clubs in the League were selected because of geographic location.

By the early 1980's, after expansion of the League to sixteen clubs, it became obvious that this formula was not feasible, and a decision was made to further expand the League and regionalise the competition into two divisions.

This proved to be a major error, because quite simply there were not sufficient players or facilities to retain the highest standards possible.

We have now turned the complete circle and reverted to the original format of fourteen clubs in one division, but the major difference is that this time we have the best fourteen clubs in Australia, regardless of geographic location.

It is a credit to all concerned that we were able to make this transition at the end of 1986 without the usual blood-letting so familiar in past days. For this I sincerely congratulate all the clubs.

I also thank Olympic Airways for their support of the League during 1985 and 1986 and hope that they can remain involved with the League in the future.

We now look forward to 1987 with great optimism. The announcement late last year by the South Australian Brewing Company Ltd that it would sponsor the League under the name of WEST END for four years vindicated the change in format.

At last we now have a major Australian company with prestige, not only providing the League with funds, but more importantly providing immense promotional and marketing support to enable the competition to gain greater exposure.

We sincerely thank West End for their support and view our relationship as the beginning of a long-term association which will mutually benefit both organisations. Together with other sponsors such as Ansett, Beach Fashions, Mitre, Nanda, Qantas, Power, Xerox and Wedgwood, we hope to make the coming season our best ever.

1987 will be a testing year. We must endeavour to build on the positive decisions that were made to bring about the revised League. We must work to further improve our image and we must ensure that standards are improved, whether they be facilities, standards of play, marketing or administration.

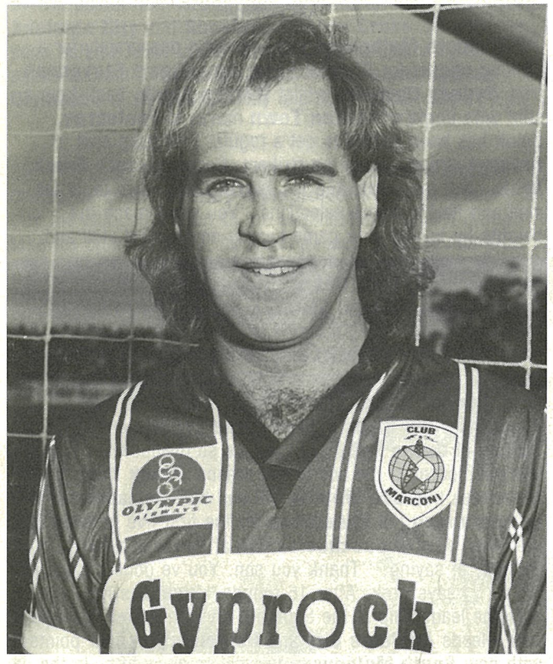
I look forward with optimism to a great year of soccer in the West End National Soccer League.

Sam Papasavas, O.A.M.
Chairman.

THAT WAS THE YEAR THAT WAS! — 1986 DIARY

By Les Shorrock

JANUARY: Adelaide Hellas determined to qualify for the 1987 14 team League embarks on a spending spree, paying Heidelberg $30,000 for Socceroo Charlie Yankos, and $15,000 for Preston's Robbie Dunn. Socceroo defender Graham Jennings moves from Sydney Olympic to Sydney Croatia after the Appeal Board sets his transfer fee at $30,000. 'It's ridiculous', says Jennings, 'at this rate, clubs will soon be paying $40,000 and $50,000 for a striker'. Marconi's top goalscorer Mark Jankovics, with 108 NSL goals to his credit has his intended move to Blacktown thwarted as Marconi lists him at $27,500.



Mark Jankovics, now 110 N.S.L. goals.

FEBRUARY: Footscray, after finishing bottom in 1985, recruits boldly in Yugoslavia, bringing in all-time great Drago Sekularac as coach. Sekularac brings with him goalkeeper Zoran Nikitovic, sweeper Vojislav Vukcevic and striker Vlado Stosic. The NSL will be reduced to a 14-team, one division League for 1987. Ten clubs will be relegated at the end of the 1986 season, their fate to be decided by a formula based on 1986 performance, past NSL record and crowd support. Socceroo coach Frank Arok, laying down his conditions for a new contract, calls for a programme of at least eight international matches a year and adequate training camps. Marconi coach Les Scheinflug is chosen to replace Jim Shoulder as coach of the national youth team.

MARCH: The transfer scene hots up as John Yzendoorn moves from South Melbourne to Brunswick Juventus for $14,500, Brisbane Lions imports Joe Morton, a Scottish 'B' international from St. Johnstone, and Adelaide Hellas brings in ex-Celtic star Brian McLaughlin. And Alan Davidson, who late in 1984 went to Nottingham Forest for $30,000 signs a four year contract with South Melbourne after overcoming a nagging back injury. The Socceroos will meet Czechoslovakia in a three-game series later this year, the ASF announces. With the possibility that Australia may have to play a final qualifying World Cup game against a South American team in 1989, coach Frank Arok wants the ASF to approve games against South American teams more than against Europeans. 'We need to get experience in South America, because it's like a madhouse when you play there, and we have to get used to it' he says. The NSL has a new sponsor for the National Cup . . . Nanda, the Brisbane pasta manufacturer. Nanda will sponsor the '86 Cup for $40,000.

APRIL: Heidelberg fans protest at the home game against Brunswick Juventus, over the transfer of Scott Patterson to Juventus for $8,500. Sydney Croatia staggers the soccer world by paying Canberra-Olympians $32,000 for 19 year-old Papua-New Guinea forward Manis Lamond. Lamond thus becomes the most expensive player in NSL history, topping the $30,000 paid for Charlie Yankos and Graham Jennings. The highest fee ever paid for an Australian player was the $130,000 Derby County paid Heidelberg for Yaka Banovic in 1984. Socceroo coach Frank Arok signs a new contract with the ASF for only two years. 'In one way it makes my job easier because I only have to concentrate on the 1988 Olympics, rather than on the 1990 World Cup, but I think it's bad planning' he says. The ASF also announces the 1986 match schedule which includes the three Czech games, three against China and home and away against New Zealand, plus possible games in Japan and Hong Kong. There will also be at least 40 days of training camps for the Socceroos. Les Scheinflug is confirmed as National Youth coach and Vic Dalgleish retains the Under 16 coaching position. After four rounds of the NSL programme, it's tight at the top in the Northern division, with five clubs, Olympic, Marconi, Croatia, Blacktown and Wollongong, all locked on six points. In the South, Preston Makedonia, Sunshine George Cross and Footscray lead on six points, with Brunswick Juventus and Adelaide City trailing them by a point.

MAY: Miron Bleiberg of Melbourne Croatia becomes the third coaching casualty of the season, as he resigns and player Luka Bonacic takes over in a caretaker capacity.

Gordon Arrowsmith of Brisbane Lions and Roy Thomson of Canberra Olympians have already been replaced. Terry Hennessy, who coached the club for just nine games in 1984, takes over again at Melbourne Croatia. After carrying all before it in the pre-season games, Croatia now languishes at the foot of the Southern table. After eight rounds, Wollongong heads the Northern table by a point from Sydney Olympic, with Sydney Croatia, Marconi and Blacktown another point away. In the Southern division, it's Footscray by a point from Brunswick Juventus, with Adelaide City, Preston and Sunshine George Cross two points further back.

JUNE: Green Gully struggling desperately to avoid relegation staggers by selling prolific goalscorer Paul Lewis to Melbourne Croatia. Coach George Murray defending the move denies the club has thrown up its hands as regards staying in the NSL and expresses some doubt as to whether there will be relegation. Dissatisfied Doug Brown moves to Heidelberg and celebrates with a last-minute equaliser for his new club against Preston Makedonia. In Adelaide, City keeps up its title drive by slamming its city rival 3-1, whilst Sydney Croatia coach Vedran Rozic declares his team is now all set for the title. Trouble brews in the South Melbourne camp with allegations of 'player power', but after a stormy pre-match meeting in their Adelaide hotel, South go out to increase Adelaide Hellas's woes with a good win. Tommy McCulloch has a triumphant debut for Sydney City after his shock $23,000 transfer from APIA-Leichhardt. The Slickers trounce St. George 7-0 with Israeli guest star Eli Ohana also starring. South Melbourne approaches ex-England star Paul Mariner to take over as player-manager, but Mariner declines. As the month ends, Footscray after twelve rounds continues to stagger the critics and has stretched its lead to three points over Brunswick Juventus, and the Southern top five is beginning to open up. In the North, Sydney Olympic and Sydney Croatia are locked together, two points clear of Marconi, with Wollongong and Newcastle making up the five.

Doug Brown, Heidelberg United.

Robbie Dunn, Melbourne Croatia.

JULY: South Melbourne still searching desperately for a striking partner for Charlie Egan signs Stuart Stevenson from Sydney Olympic, whilst Warren Spink, back from a stint with England's Luton Town moves to Footscray. Spink has been unable to get a regular first-team spot as Preston already has three strikers. Socceroo coach Frank Arok, back from watching the World Cup, vows to go for skill and flair in future selections. 'You can't reach the heights by basing your game heavily on physical skill and guts' he says. He then announces a squad that includes six new selections, Tony Dakos, Alan Hunter, Angie Postecoglou, Russell Stewart, Sergio Melta and Steve Maxwell, who, with 18 others will go into training for the three match series against Czechoslovakia next month. Controversy over next season's 14-team format continues to rage. George Cross threatens legal action. Two club Presidents, Joe Sigur of Melbourne Croatia and Guy Spiteri of Green Gully say they are so disillusioned that they will quit soccer at the end of the season. Frank Arok announces that Joe Watson will end his International career by captaining the Socceroos for the first five minutes of the game against Czechoslovakia at Parramatta Park. 'It's our way of saying, ''Thank you son. You've done a great job for us'',' says Arok. After 16 rounds, Juventus has taken over the leadership of the Southern division from Footscray, and it leads Adelaide City and Heidelberg by four points, with now South Melbourne two points away fifth. In the North, Sydney Croatia leads Sydney Olympic by a point, another two points away is Marconi with Blacktown and Sydney City making up the five.

AUGUST: South Melbourne committeeman and team manager Pierre Pallas says that private ownership will be the only way to go in the future and says he will be proposing at South's annual general meeting that the club form itself into a company with one million $1 shares on offer. Millionaire money dealer Jack Reilly, a former Socceroo goalkeeper and now Chairman of the VSF, says he would be quite prepared to buy a big parcel of shares, but only if the NSL were replaced by a more viable League. The Socceroos scramble a 1-1 draw with Czechoslovakia at Melbourne's Olympic Park, thanks to a last-minute equalizer by Graham Arnold. Despite having arrived from Europe on the morning of the match, the Czechs always look to have Australia's measure, and lead from the 55th minute with a Josef Novak goal. Youth Socceroo coach Les Scheinflug remains very sanguine about his team's chances in the World Championships in Chile next year, despite the 4-0 loss in Newcastle in the third match against the Czech youth side. Australia had won the first two games 3-0 and 6-1. By contrast, Frank Arok laments after his senior team is beaten 3-0 at Parramatta in the third and last encounter with the Czechs, 'We were outplayed by a faster, more skilful and technically superior side. This team is better than England, better than the Scotland side we played before'. The Socceroos had already lost 1-0 in Adelaide. In the Nanda Cup semi-finals, Sydney City beats Heidelberg in a twelve-penalty shoot-out after extra-time fails to settle the deadlock. Frank Farina equalizes for Sydney City in the 89th minute after Paul Wilson had given the Bergers a 55 minute lead. In the other semi-final, Adelaide Hellas downs a gallant Canberra City with two goals in extra time, for a final scoreline of 3-1. As the month ends, after 20 rounds, Footscray has wrested back the Southern division lead, by two points from Brunswick Juventus, with Heidelberg, Adelaide City and Sunshine George Cross, all only one point behind Juve. In the North, Croatia clears out four points in front of Sydney City, with Marconi, Sydney Olympic and St George only one point farther back.

SEPTEMBER: TV entrepreneur Harry Michaels drops a bombshell on the Sydney Olympic committee by offering to buy the club. In a letter to the committee he says if it doesn't take his offer seriously, he'll call a meeting of the members to back his bid. Newcastle-Rosebud secretary Ernie Lamb is also in the news as he announces that his club may not take part in the 1987 NSL even if it qualifies. Lamb gives uncertainty over sponsorship, both local and national as the reasons for the possible decision. A dramatic Andrew Zinni hat-trick against South Melbourne gives Brunswick Juventus the Southern division championship and also knocks South out of the finals. Preston Makedonia also fails to make the finals, whilst Green Gully, finishing bottom, three points behind Brisbane City is doomed to relegation. Sydney Croatia wins the Northern championship by a handsome five points from Sydney Olympic and St. George. As the League issues its final fourteen list it is seen that Melbourne Croatia has just squeaked into fourteenth place, at the expense of Brisbane Lions. Meanwhile, League Chairman Sam Papasavas firmly scotches speculation that any club that has missed the cut will receive preferential treatment. He also confirms that the contentious qualification clause of crowd support did not have to be considered. In the first of the finals, Marconi eliminates Sydney City on penalties after a thrilling 3-3 draw, whilst George Cross knocks out an injury-weakened Heidelberg 2-1. Adelaide City advances to the Southern Semi-Final with a 3-2 scoreline over Footscray, whilst St. George upsets the pundits with a 1-0 win over Sydney Olympic in the Northern qualifier. Adelaide City beats Brunswick Juventus 2-1 to reach the Southern Grand Final, whilst St. George in a major upset beats Sydney Croatia 3-0 to reach the Northern Grand Final. Sydney City compensates for its Final Five disappointments with a great extra-time win over Adelaide Hellas in the final of the Nanda Cup. The two teams were level after 90 minutes, Lou Hristodolou's 49th minute goal for the Adelaide team being cancelled out in the 61st minute by John Kosmina, then Frank Farina struck twice in extra time for the Slickers, after Hristodoulou had again put Adelaide Hellas ahead.

OCTOBER: Footscray comes back with a 2-1 win over Brunswick Juventus in extra time to qualify for the Southern Grand Final, and Sydney Olympic does a Lazarus act against Sydney Croatia in the Northern preliminary final, coming back from 3-1 down with 27 minutes to go, to win 4-3 in extra time. Sydney Olympic goes on to win the Northern Grand Final with a controversial 3-2 extra-time win over St. George, whilst Adelaide City tactically out-manoeuvres Footscray in the Southern Grand Final to win 2-1. In the first leg of the National Grand Final, Adelaide City goes down 1-0 at home to a talented Sydney Olympic, but staggers the Sydneysiders in the return with a polished display that sees them run out 3-1 winners. Les Scheinflug shocks Marconi by turning down a new coaching contract and says he's off to Blacktown City, now in the NSW State League. He is to be replaced by former Italian star, Roberto Vieri. Brian Garvey quits as coach of Heidelberg, and is favourite to take over at South Melbourne replacing John Margaritis, and Manny Schaefer, despite a satisfactory 1986 season, is to quit Sydney Olympic after three years. The good news though, is that the National League has pulled off a big coup in securing a 4-year sponsorship, said to be worth $3 million, with Adelaide brewing giant, West End. The Socceroos gain a 1-1 draw against 'the old enemy', New Zealand, in Auckland with Andy Deeley, who is set to join Heidelberg scoring for the Kiwis, after Graham Arnold had put Australia ahead. South Melbourne's Bobby Russell wins the second Rothmans National League Gold Medal, with 26 votes, two ahead of APIA-Leichhardt's Arno Bertogna. Joint third, with 20 votes, were Graham Arnold (Sydney Croatia), Alan Hunter (Heidelberg) and Tyrone James (Sunshine George Cross). Frank Arok's Socceroos round off a satisfactory season with a 2-1 win over New Zealand at Parramatta Stadium, to win the inaugural Trans-Tasman Cup.

ADELAIDE

JUVENTUS ACHIEVES THE IMPOSSIBLE

How do you win a national championship on a shoestring budget, without buying overseas or interstate players?

Adelaide City has the answer — good old-fashioned application to hard work and adherence to discipline.

None of that, of course, will succeed without a high skill factor and a great degree of individual flair.

But the essence of Adelaide City's ''secret'' formula in 1986 was TEAMWORK!

Above all else, Adelaide City gave credence to the proverb, ''toil is the sire of fame.''

That Adelaide City was able to achieve what most believed to be the impossible dream is a tribute to the leadership qualities of coach Zoran Matic and coaching co-ordinator John Perin.

In handing out bouquets, the staunch work of president Charlie Caruso and his committee should not be overlooked.

The camaraderie of the committee room went close to matching that of the players on the park.

The fact that most of the Adelaide City players had been together for several seasons was a strong contributory factor to City reaching its NSL Everest.

Pre-season there was little or no hint that City was made of the stuff which brings high honors.

In Yugoslav-born Matic it had a coach who had achieved notable success at State League level with SA club Beograd, but this was, after all, his first season in charge of a national league outfit.

It also was hurtful that NSL rival Adelaide Hellas captured most of the local and national headlines as it embarked on a pre-season spending spree which saw it dubbed the Hellas ''Highrollers''.

While Adelaide City drew its purse strings tighter Hellas lashed out over $100,000 to buy Socceroos Charlie Yankos and Robbie Dunn, Youth Socceroo Lou Hristodoulou, former Scottish professional Brian McLaughlin and Melbourne Croatia striker Gary Ward.

City's only pre-season purchases were SA State Leaguers, Paul Wilde from Eastern Districts Azzurri and Gary Higgins from Salisbury United.

But before a ball could be kicked in anger in the quest for national league glory, City lost Wilde when the lithe young striker suffered an ankle injury while playing indoor soccer.

Earlier City had to begin its defence of the SA Ampol Cup night series without 1984 Player of The Year Sergio Melta, who had returned from SA's tour of India with a broken arm.

Despite the set-backs City won the prestigious Ampol Cup and later significantly added to its player power by regaining Paul Shillabeer from Beograd-Woodville.

But the early stages of the NSL season was alive with land mines as City's first steps saw it lose key midfielders Brian Northcote and Adrian Santrac because of serious injuries.

Adelaide City skipper 'Bugsy' Nyskohus holds high the National Grand Final Trophy.

Northcote suffered a snapped Achilles tendon and Santrac damaged his right knee.

Ironically, both players were hurt during City's remarkable, near record 7-1 win over Footscray in the first home game of the new season.

Northcote's injury put the iron-man out for the rest of the year and while Santrac recovered, City had a further set-back when striker Steve Maxwell suffered a back injury early in the match against Brisbane Lions.

Those horrendous happenings were further soured when midfielder Charley Villani was red-carded as City downed Lions 2-0.

City's league campaign run was rudely interrupted by a 0-1 second round Nanda Cup loss to Adelaide Hellas.

The exit was a blow to City's pride, but since Hellas went on to contest the Nanda Cup final against Sydney City, there can be no real stigma attached to the loss.

Cup form is about play on the day, while league aspirations are materialised through consistency, so City soldiered on to finish third on the Southern Division league ladder with 27 points from 10 wins, seven draws and five losses.

Above City were Brunswick Juventus and Footscray which both amassed 28 points with Juventus taking the league honors because of its vastly superior goal-difference.

So City went into the National League top five play-offs against Footscray — a preliminary final which would be decided at Melbourne's Olympic Park, while George Cross took on Heidelberg in the elimination final.

The Northern Division combatants were Sydney City against Marconi in the elimination semi-final and St. George versus Sydney Olympic in the preliminary semi-final.

SA was proud of Adelaide City's achievements but most realised that City was in exulted company and that it faced a herculean task.

City proved its courage and character by twice coming from behind to beat Footscray 3-2 in the Southern Division qualifying semi-final which peaked as a dramatic event when Sergio Melta converted a twice-taken penalty.

City's next hurdle was Brunswick Juventus in the major semi-final, but the SA team suddenly found it had an entire Oakbank course to leap because it was told it had to play at Hindmarsh Stadium instead of its home ground, Olympic Sports Field.

Worse followed when City was denied the use of its traditional black-and-white vertical striped shirts and was forced to wear its away strip while Brunswick donned the black-and-white.

City milked the last drop of drama from the situation by running on to the field with its black-and-white shirts worn over the top of its yellow strip.

Spurred by a huge sense of injustice City flattened Brunswick 2-0 with a two minute burst which realised goals from Charley Villani and Aurelio Vidmar to shoot into the grand final.

With Footscray beating Brunswick 2-1 in a thrilling extra-time preliminary final, City's tough task was to again front Footscray in the Southern Division final in Melbourne.

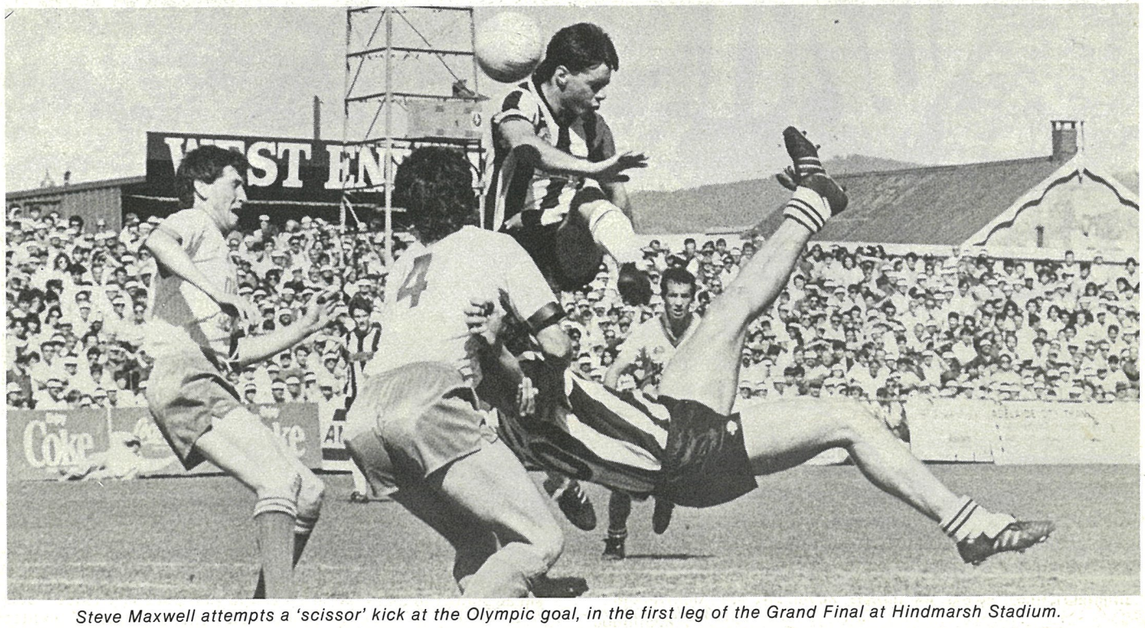
City, the fans believed, needed help and it got it in the shape of almost 2000 supporters who converged upon Victoria by plane, car and bus to witness what they hoped would prove to be City's finest hour.

The unbridled enthusiasm of the City supporters had to be seen to be believed as they carted banners and flags to Olympic Park.

Many dressed in Adelaide City's distinctive colors and they arrived early to set up a vantage point.

The City faithful and loyal were not disappointed, indeed they left the stadium in a state of delirium after City had beaten Footscray 2-1 to qualify for the home and away grand final against Sydney Olympic.

But the City fans had to endure their seemingly obligatory moments of anguish in Melbourne because Footscray took the lead through midfielder Suliman Curovic three minutes after half time.



Steve Maxwell attempts a 'scissor' kick at the Olympic goal, in the first leg of the Grand Final at Hindmarsh Stadium.

But just as City had risen from the dead to flatten Footscray in the preliminary final so it staged another gutsy comeback with two glorious goals from Vidmar and Maxwell.

City's trail of triumph looked to be nearing the terminus when Olympic came to Hindmarsh Stadium and notched a calculated 1-0 first leg victory.

Olympic coach Manfred Schaefer adopted tactics designed to procure a draw, but a 79th minute scrambled goal by defender Tony Dakos game him an unexpected away game bonus.

Matic could not disguise his disappointment, but declared, ''We lost the battle, but we haven't lost the war.''

Wily Matic spotted some weaknesses in Olympic's makeup and he knew that the glamor Sydney club would not play defensively in front of its fanatical home supporters.

The mood in the City camp for the trip to Parramatta Stadium was crammed with optimism.

The popular pre-match prediction was that City would win 3-0 — a prognostication which seemed strange when it was known that the Adelaide side would have to come from behind a third time in the finals series to achieve its goal.

But they were thoughts from within the City squad. It was an entirely different story in the Olympic clubrooms and a different version from the Sydney Press which gave City no hope of success.

City's historic 3-1 win on that memorable afternoon in Parramatta gave it the national crown on a 3-2 aggregate over the two legs.

The success sparked a series of celebrations unprecedented in the history of SA soccer football.

Thousands watched the Parramatta Stadium spectacular live on SBS television in Adelaide and when the Adelaide City party touched down at Adelaide Airport on Sunday night at 8.33 there was a welcoming committee of over 2,000.

The aircraft captain relayed the word that the soccer team should wait until last to disembark and the players were greeted by airport scenes matched only by the arrival of the famous Juventus of Turin.

The players were whisked away to the Olympic Sports Field at Kensington Park where they were driven in a motorcade lap of honor to the accompliment of exploding fireworks.

Then it was into the clubrooms which suddenly were rendered too small for the vast crowd wishing to pay their respects.

The festivities continued until the next day. Opinions on when the celebrations actually ceased vary, but some well informed Adelaide City club members swear they lasted until Christmas.

And just by some mischance that the memory of the great day should fade, the video is always on hand to relive the magical moments of the final.

The heroes of the final were Bugsy Nyskohus (captain), Willie McNally, Paul Shillabeer, Neville Flounders, Alex Tobin, Adrian Santrac, Sergio Melta, Charley Villani, Aurelio Vidmar, Steve Maxwell, Joe Mullen and Paul Wilde.

A final in which Adelaide City Juventus defied the odds to materialise a modern day rags-to-riches fairy story of Boys Own Annual proportions.

ADELAIDE CITY NEEDS REINFORCEMENTS IN 1987

By ''The Advertiser'' soccer writer Allan Crisp

Australian national league champion Adelaide City Juventus faces an enormous task this year as it strives to retain its crown.

Most of the magnificent men who played last year will be there again, but reinforcements will have to be found if City is to win back-to-back titles.

There can be no dispute regarding the quality of City's West End NSL squad, but there is a decided lack of quantity.

Zoran Matic and his talented charges are aware their 13 West End NSL adversaries will all find that undefinable extra effort as they try to cut down the tall poppy.

And Adelaide City has to defend the championship without the services of Socceroo striker Steve Maxwell, who has transferred to Marconi.

Coach Matic and City's coaching co-ordinator John Perin both point to Paul Wilde when asked who will replace Maxwell up front this season.

Athletic Wilde served his apprenticeship with City last year and on the rare occasions that he was called off the substitutes' bench he performed creditably.

City has other NSL prospects in Tim Mullen, younger brother of the well established Joe, Paul Ellul and South American-born Roque Barbero.

The latter was on trial during the SA Ampol Cup series in the left full back position and while he is not yet ready to replace stars like Paul Shillabeer and Alex Tobin, he could be a useful back-up player.

Tim Mullen also can be placed in that category as he is a youngster of huge potential, but not yet ready to be thrust into the hurly burly of NSL competition.

Matic and Perin recognise Tim Mullen's budding talent, while Perin exudes glowing praise when he discusses young Ellul.

But Perin concedes that 16-year-old Ellul is a couple of years away from first team selection.

Juan Rodriguez, who impressed when City beat Salisbury United 6-0 in an Ampol Cup clash last month, looms as another likely prospect.

Goal keeper Willie McNally drinks from the National Trophy as his captain 'Bugsy' Nyskohus waits for his turn.

Paul Shillabeer, Adelaide City.

Rodriquez's experience thus far has been restricted to second division football in City's Rothmans League team.

Given the opportunity he is capable of making the giant transition from State League to NSL, as are several other players on City's books.

But the crying need as City prepares to open its campaign is for players of quality who are capable of walking into the first eleven.

That objective is easier to write about than to achieve when finances are at a premium, but City is exploring every available avenue to bolster its squad.

City has a complex problem in attempting to recruit local State League players of promise to Kensington Gardens.

Earlier this year Matic issued an open invitation to all local players who considered themselves capable of playing NSL football to come to Adelaide City.

There was a healthy response, but when the players were told they could not be guaranteed an NSL place and that the alternative was to play in the second division, most opted to stay with their first division clubs.

Immensely talented Duane Gray is a good example. He trained with City for several weeks, was impressed with the set-up, but eventually signed for first division champion Campbelltown City.

In an effort to solve the problem Matic recently suggested that City should implement a player investment scheme with business people becoming shareholders in new players.

''We are asking for help from people from all walks of life so we can strengthen our squad for the coming season,'' Matic said.

''We don't have the sort of money to pay the big amounts that Melbourne and Sydney clubs are paying, but if we can introduce a shareholder scheme, we could compete with the eastern states.''

''The idea could involve players from here, interstate or even overseas,'' Matic said.

Meanwhile, the relentless search for player reinforcements continues.

MELBOURNE PROSPECTS

by Bob Brian

MELBOURNE CROATIA

Melbourne Croatia is about to find out if it can succeed where its Sydney namesake failed last season in buying a championship team.

Although the actual amount of money coach Terry Hennessey has spent on re-building his squad is likely to remain a secret for a very long time it is considerable.

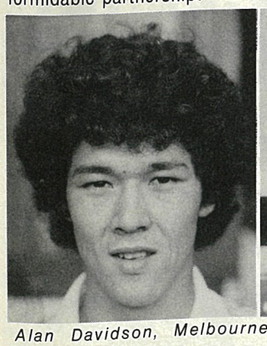
The signing of Scottish striker Ian Wallace from Portuguese club Maritimo must have cost the club a packet. Wallace joined Nottingham Forest from Coventry City for over one million pounds sterling.

He has always, in fact, been an expensive buy for the three clubs that have bought him since his debut with Dumbarton.

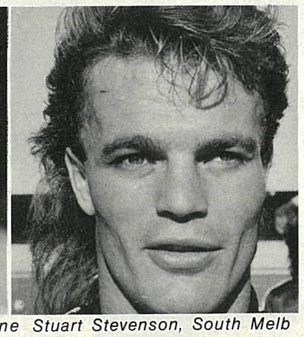
Although Hennessey's shopping has not been carried in the bargain basement his cheapest buy could turn out to be the biggest success of them all.

Andy Humble, who came from 1986 State League champions Croydon City for a mere $1000 is strong, quick, determined and more skilful than he is inclined to look.

Humble could score a lot of goals this season, whilst his Croydon team-mate, Jim McLean, another Hennessey signing, could be the man to turn the Wallace-Humble strike force into a formidable partnership.



Alan Davidson, Melbourne Croatia.



Stuart Stevenson, South Melbourne.

Socceroo Robbie Dunn, at $25,000 and Alan Davidson at $22,000 plus a game to be played later in the season, will surely strengthen the defence.

And another import, Willie Herd from Partick Thistle, will certainly give Croatia an experienced midfield.

Taking into consideration transfer fees and signing-on fees as well as wages, there is no doubt that Croatia has invested heavily in success this season.

Sydney Croatia took the same gamble last year and failed. South Melbourne, West Adelaide, Marconi and Sydney Olympic have all missed out in the past after taking the same course, so Melbourne Croatia has no precedent to comfort it.

But Hennessey is a determined man who has already had a taste of success in the USA, where he guided the Tulsa Roughnecks to a Superbowl win which earned him the title of NASL Coach of the Year.

It all points to his ability to build and coach a winning team. But he and his highly-priced players will be under a lot of pressure to succeed, with a lot of people ready to say, 'I told you so' if they fail.

SOUTH MELBOURNE

Until Hennessey started his recruiting drive, South Melbourne was looking for all the world like the Victorian team most likely to prevent a Sydney domination of the West End National League this year.

It may still turn out that way.

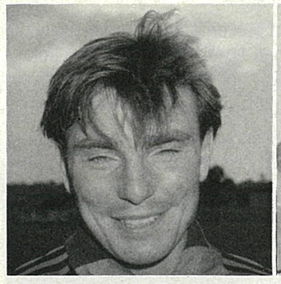
South will certainly have a stronger squad (on paper), than it had last season with Danny Wright from Brisbane Lions showing excellent potential in the pre-season Buffalo Gold Cup.

Wright looks capable of scoring a lot of goals and with Charlie Egan looking sharper than ever and Stuart Stevenson back to the best form he once showed at Heidelberg, South has a lot going for it.

The defence looks good, and new coach Brian Garvey had two very successful years at Heidelberg with only limited resources at his disposal.

He will have former Socceroo Kenny Murphy back from an injury that kept him out for most of last season, whilst Danny Crainie who played only a few games last season after coming from Dundee, has already captivated the club's supporters.

On the ball, he is as clever as any player in the competition, with Brazil-style skill and the cheekiness to make him a popular entertainer.



Sean Lane, Brunswick Juve

Steve Marley, Heidelberg.

With the 'old guard' of Bobby Russell, the 1986 Rothmans Medal winner, Steve Blair, Gary McDowall and Angie Postecoglou, all present or past Socceroos, in front of Peter Laumets, himself a 'capped' player, South will be difficult to score against.

BRUNSWICK JUVENTUS

Brunswick Juventus, having lost Mike Petersen to Ajax Amsterdam and Paul Wade to South Melbourne, has filled the gap by buying Sean Lane from Preston, Luciano Fabrizio from Brisbane City and Vlatko Belic from Footscray.

Whether they will prove adequate replacements only time will tell, but they certainly have the necessary ability.

The loss of goalkeeper Yaka Banovic and striker Joe Sweeney is a set-back, but coach Len McKendry has plenty of talent at his disposal, and I have no doubt that Juventus will once again be a force to be reckoned with.

HEIDELBERG UNITED

Heidelberg has had to survive a severe financial crisis, which cut recruiting to the bone.

However, new coach Roy McLaren seems to have bought well with the addition of New Zealand International Andy Deeley and former Kilmarnock striker Laurie McKinna to the squad.

With former top goalscorer Doug Brown also available, Heidelberg should be well equipped in attack.

Alan Hunter, just back from an ankle operation and Ian McKie recovering from a knee operation should soon be fully fit to bolster one of the best defences in the country.

It contains Socceroo goalkeeper Jeff Olver, the talented Steve Marley and Theo Selemidis, who was a revelation as a sweeper last year. It should have no problems there.

If there is a weakness, it is likely to show in midfield, where there is a lack of experience.

FOOTSCRAY

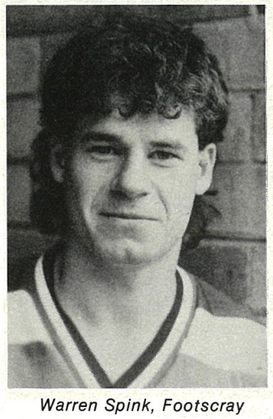
Footscray, by far the most improved team in the League last season, has struggled in pre-season games and there is no doubt that its much revered coach Drago Sekularac has a big job on his hands.

He has made it quite clear that he needs players . . . at least two defenders . . . and they will have to be top-class to satisfy him and to keep the wolf from the door.

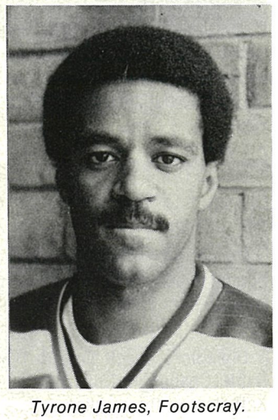
But Sekularac worked a near miracle last season and he will be expected to do so again.

He has lost Vojislav Vukcevic and Vlado Stosic, who have returned to Yugoslavia, but has regained goalkeeper Zoran Nikitovic, who has just returned.

The departures have left a big hole in the side, and Sekularac must get his way, or it will be back to the struggling days again for the 'Blues'.



Warren Spink, Footscray



Tyrone James, Footscray.

SUNSHINE GEORGE CROSS

Last season's most criticised club, Sunshine George Cross will again be hard to beat — and perhaps more interesting to watch.

It could have the most entertaining young players to watch in Melbourne playing together.

I am referring to John Markovski, Paul Trimboli and Andrew Marth. Markovski, carefully nursed by coach John Gardiner emerged as a striker/midfielder of great potential last season.

Paul Trimboli whom youth team coach Les Scheinflug was moved to describe last year as another Kenny Dalglish has joined from the AIS, and Marth is an emerging defender of great promise.

And there is also a chance that Robert Markovac could join from Croatia.

All these are under 20, all have been tipped for stardom, and they are certain to give Georgie a new more exciting image.

Last season, George Cross relied on the careful planning of Gardiner. Without the money to buy experienced players and having lost Tyrone James to Footscray, Gardiner will again be the key factor in the club's fortunes.

Ian Dobson, Preston.

PRESTON MAKEDONIA

The biggest question mark hangs over Preston Makedonia. It could be either a real force or be battling for survival, depending on the outcome of its search for a striker.

It has put both former Socceroo Gary Cole and Graham Heys up for sale, and that leaves it with only Steve Smith and Steve Gojevic as recognised goalscorers.

Smith spent a lot of time last year on the injured list and missed the pre-season Buffalo Gold Cup matches, so he could be a doubtful proposition. But the arrival of Zoran Tasevski from Yugoslavia and the return to fitness of Ron Campbell will give the midfield a boost . . . especially if young Nick van Egmond goes on with the form he displayed in the Buffalo Cup matches.

The signing of Steve Jackson from Brisbane Lions will strengthen the defence which, with Ian Roodhouse, Con Opasinis and Ian Dobson already looks formidable.

THE NORTHERN CHALLENGERS

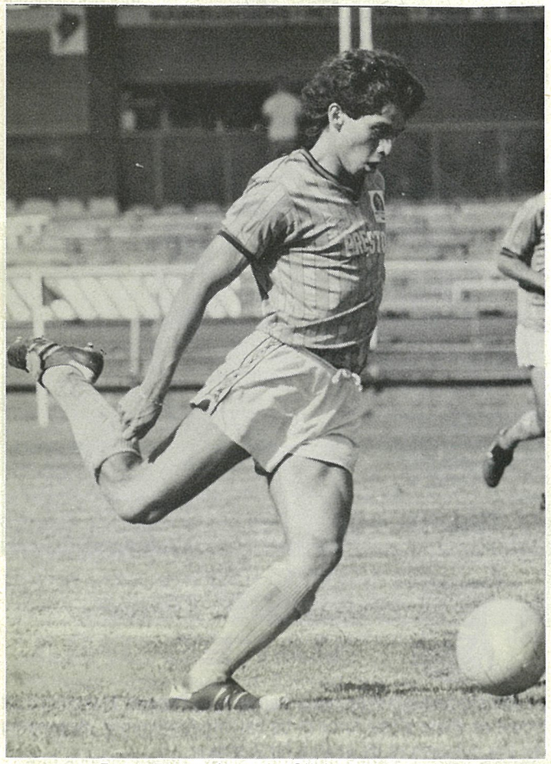
By John Taylor

MARCONI

Marconi, with only one NSL title in 10 years, captured the imagination of the close season market by landing three big fish, Gerry Gomez, Steve Maxwell and Frank Farina.

The Sydney club splashed out almost $80,000 in transfer fees in snaring the three exciting players.

It would seem that Marconi is the big spender this year, but as President Tony Labbozzetta says, 'with the sale of Rod Brown and Peter Tredinnick to APIA and the money we netted from the Vardar promotion we have balanced the books as far as transfer fees go'.



Frank Farina, from the Slickers to Marconi.

Labbozzetta says that Gomez and Farina initially were the club's prime targets and Maxwell only came into serious contention when Farina agreed to stay with Sydney City and when Brown decided to sever his ties with the Fairfield-based club.

The Marconi President 'worked on' his contacts at Adelaide City and finally the NSL champions released the Socceroo squad member.

Then the big shock of the off-season, the Slickers agreed to sell Farina. 'It wasn't his Italian background so much that made us want him, I regard him as the hottest property in Australia soccer', says Labbozzetta.

Whilst that trio is well-known in NSL circles, Labbozzetta predicts that another newcomer will take the newly-sponsored West End NSL by storm. He is goalscoring midfielder Zlatko Nastevski who used to play for Vardar before coming out from Yugoslavia last year to play for NSW State League club Rockdale.

There has been a change in coaching personnel at Marconi, and former Italian professional Roberto Vieri has replaced Les Scheinflug who has linked up with Blacktown City in the NSW State League.

Fans will remember Vieri's brilliance as a player, but this is his first big test as a coach.

SYDNEY OLYMPIC

There have been interesting developments at Sydney Olympic where the club has a new coach, has signed up two of the most experienced players in Australia and has discarded Vincente Estavillo.

Yugoslav Milan Lukic has a hard act to follow, as Manfred Schaefer had incredible success in three and a half years as Olympic's coach. Schaefer has gone into hibernation, but for how long?

Club President Tom Doumanis is excited about the team's prospects. 'The best thing that could have happened to us was the signing of David Ratcliffe and John Kosmina. They are true professionals', he says.

John Kosmina, Sydney Olympic.

David Ratcliffe, Sydney Olympic.

Olympic outlayed $43,000 in transfer fees to secure Ratcliffe, Kosmina, Emil Dragicevic, Spiros Hantzis and Peter Kotamanidis.

Whilst Dragicevic played as a midfielder or striker with Sydney Croatia, he will play at right back for Olympic, a role he used to play in Yugoslavia for Dinamo Zagreb.

Hantzis, who joined Olympic on a 'free' from Canterbury is hoping to secure the left back spot, whilst former Wollongong City midfielder Kotamanidis will have to be on his toes to cement a regular first grade berth with his new club.

Olympic's shock loss to Blacktown in the pre-season State Bank Challenge Cup saw the club put Estavillo and Peter Katholos on the market.

In another interesting move, Olympic will be playing at St. George Stadium. 'That will have enormous benefits for our side, we have a lot of ball-players' says Doumanis.

SYDNEY CROATIA

Sydney Croatia player-coach Vedran Rozic has no hesitation in naming goalkeeper Anthony Franken as his most important recruit. But the only problem facing the coach of last year's Northern Division premiers in preparing his team each week is that Franken can attend only one training session.

'Tony has to complete his studies in Canberra' says Rozic. 'It's a bit of a headache, but Ron Corry will be looking after him, and he's the best goalkeeper-coach in Australia'.

Croatia's other new signings are stopper Ray Vlietstra, from Wollongong, utility player Mark Jones from Newcastle and Blacktown City striker Robbie Slater. Although Jones played mainly as a striker for Newcastle last season Rozic has been trialling him as a full-back and as a midfielder.

The Croatia coach has also been experimenting with Socceroo full-back Graham Jennings in the midfield. The versatile Jennings began his career as a winger so hasn't found the transition too tasking.

Ante Rumora and Ivan Petkovic will continue with the club, but the attacking Petkovic will miss the first three months of the West End season because of overseas commitments.

Rozic, who sustained a bad facial injury near the end of last season which caused him to miss the play-offs, is back calling the shots on the field. 'The competition is going to be very, very tough this year', he says. 'What we really lacked in the past was players who could cover positions when we had serious injuries. I believe we have filled the gaps and have more quality now'. Socceroo striker Graham Arnold and Robbie Slater will prove a handful for most defences, but coach Rozic is looking for a vast improvement from Manis Lamond, the club's most expensive acquisition last year.

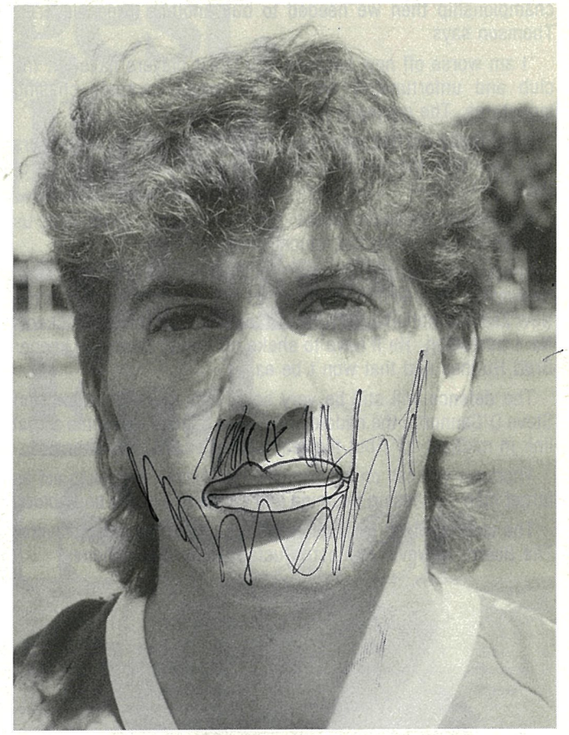
Robbie Slater, Sydney Croatia.

ST GEORGE B.S.C.

The old guard that served St. George so well in recent years has been released by manager Frank Arok.

It is strange that Arok should pick 1987 as the year to unload such vastly experienced players as Terry Greedy, David Ratcliffe, Robert and John O'Shea and David Skeen when the bottom two clubs face relegation. Arok says it is time to take a firm stance and concentrate on building a young team.

He claims that most of the young players he has bought won't be overawed because they have some NSL experience.



Pedro Ricoy, St George.

George Kulscar (Canberra), Neil Owens (Newcastle), David Green (Wollongong), Scott Hughes (Sutherland), Alan Pottier (Perth), Frank D'addario (Monaro), Dennis Fterniatis (Canterbury) and Kevin Meacock (Newcastle Austral) are now on Saints' books. There is not much NSL experience among that bunch.

When Arok put two of the O'Shea brothers out to paddock, it was thought Michael might part company with the Sants . . . the brothers had always worked as a package deal in the past. But Michael now becomes the sole survivor and key man in a defence that has been ripped apart.

Owens, who played regularly for Newcastle Rosebud, and young Socceroo Kulscar will be vying for the sweeper position and Arok has transformed Hughes from a striker into a fullback.

Whilst the Saints' boss says he has all positions covered, it will be vitally important that players like Pedro Ricoy, Graeme Fletcher and Andy Koczka don't receive serious injuries. Koczka was a casualty in the State Bank competition and required an operation on his knee.

SYDNEY CITY

Arok's decision to sweep the broom through the club could be costly. On paper, Sydney City is not the feared combination of past years. Losing John Kosmina, Frank Farina and Gerry Gomez to other NSL clubs, plus the departure of Joe Watson to NSW Second Division club Kingsford, has taken a lot of firepower out of Australia's one-time glamour club.

It would be an understatement to say that Eddie Thomson faces his most difficult challenge in what has been an illustrious coaching career with the Slickers.

'I thought if we were going to be a serious challenger for the championship then we needed to buy another three players', Thomson says.

'I am worse off now because four great players have left the club and unfortunately we can no longer compete chasing signatures. The money is just not available.

What really worries me is how I am going to retain my players next year with the bait that some clubs are dangling in front of them'.

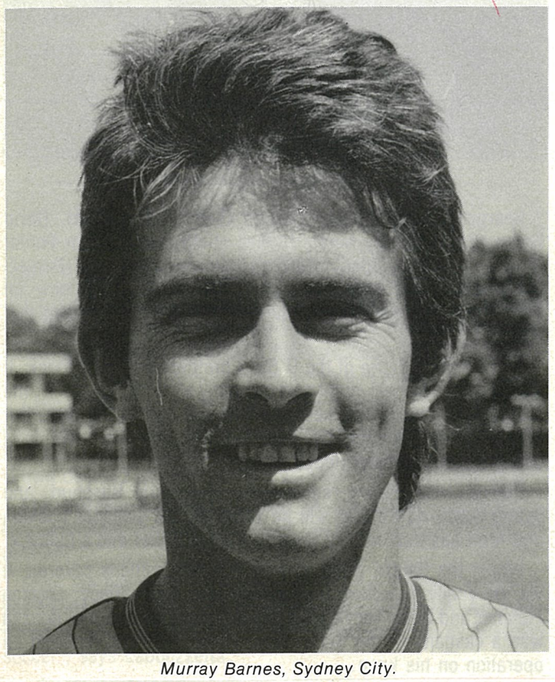
But despite the heavy losses, Thomson warns, 'never write us off. We will be trying that much harder'.

Thomson's first signing was a goalkeeper, Clint Gosling from Newcastle. But Gosling because of his commitments with the New Zealand National team, won't automatically be the Slickers' No.1 custodian. He'll have to shake off Young Socceroo keeper Brett Hughes and that won't be easy.

The defence will still be very solid with Alex Robertson and Steve O'Connor in the middle and Abbas Saad will become a vital link in midfield . . . but the real lack of punch is up front.

Thomson will call on old campaigner Murray Barnes to act as target man . . . losing Kosmina and Farina is a heavy body blow.

The club received $70,000 from the sale of the three players. The Board, however is most reluctant to part with money.



Murray Barnes, Sydney City.

Arno Bertogna, Apia — Leichhardt.

APIA-LEICHHARDT

The signing of former Socceroo goalkeeper Terry Greedy for APIA has a two-fold purpose, says coach Rale Rasic.

It not only gives the club two class keepers in Tony Pezzano and Greedy, but a goalkeeping coach as well.

'We bought Terry for the long term', says Rasic. 'He will be in charge of goalkeepers at the club and will also be involved in school clinics. What a bargain at $3000. As for the No.1 keeper at APIA, the man with the best form will get the job'.

With the backing of successful businessman and new club chairman Joe Prestia, APIA has a much more solid look about it this year.

The list of APIA's recruits includes Socceroo captain and sweeper Charlie Yankos, Marconi midfielder Peter Tredinnick, Canterbury's creative midfielder Burin Zaimi, Marconi striker Rod Brown, Canberra striker Hilton Phillips, and Greedy.

Yankos suffered medial ligament damage in the State Bank Cup, but has recovered in time for the opening of the new season.

Phillips was also a pre-season casualty with a bad knee injury, while Darren Stewart had two operations on a heel and Alex Bundalo was a very late starter. 'Rod Brown is going through a transition period', says Rasic. 'I don't want him to sit back and wait for chances. He must get more involved in the game'. But the skilful Zaimi is the player Rasic expects big things from. 'Now here's a real footballer', he says.

The other big news is the expected appearance of Italian World Cup star Bruno Conti for a guest stint.

The newest, fastest, biggest, strongest, and tallest member of the West End National Soccer League.

Ansett are proud to have been chosen as the official airline for the West End National Soccer League.
